Town Information

Town History:

Although historical records are imprecise, Haworth is believed to take its name from Haworth, England, a Hamlet made famous by the Bronte Sisters. The first European settlers were not English, but Dutch farmers who carved out arable field from thick forests. The rural tranquility of the area remains undisturbed with its tutor-style homes and its ancient trees towering to commanding heights. Haworth is a beautiful single-family community.

Town Meetings:

Town Meetings are held on the 2nd Tuesday, Municipal Center, 8 PM

Real Estate Ordinances:

Haworth's zoning rules state that "For Sale" or "For Rent" signs cannot exceed three square feet in area, or one sign not exceeding ten inches in height nor eighteen inches in length.
